WEDNESDAYS - JANUARY 20 - FEBRUARY 24

COMEDY IMPROV! GRADES 2-8

Comedy Improv through Zoom is a lot of fun and a fantastic outlet for young people's natural creativity! Via Zoom, shy students are emboldened to try improvising when they might have avoided it in person. And for imaginative, naturally playful young people, it's a gift to provide them with a community experience in which they can play, listen, be appreciated and expand their imaginations and performance skills. Our class offers warm-up creativity exercises, as well as solo, partner, and small group performance activities. The class culminates in a keepsake filmed show for family and friends featuring the students' favorite improv games.

INSTRUCTOR: BRIDGET PALMER

WEDNESDAYS | 2:10-3:10PM | FEE $90

FUN WITH FOOD ART GRADES 3-8

Bring your appetite for art and come make fantastic one-of-a-kind art with food, using food like you never thought you could! We will create imaginative, unique collage portraits with food. Next we will explore the beautiful art and meaning of the mandala (with just the food you find in your kitchen). Use your favorite candy treats to create yummy art, too beautiful to eat, but I think you will want to! What art will you make with food?
